Foreword

Between the covers of this book, the REBEL of '59, are graphic portrayals of the gaiety, warmth, and achievements of this memorable year in your life.

Treasure this book, for it is endeared with treasures. Guard it, for its memories are priceless. Turn its pages gently, for they represent the freshness of carefree youth.

Pictured within is the beginning of youth, the prime of youth, and the threshold of adulthood--three great segments of youth engulfed in their many facets of entertainment and accomplishment, combined in this one year period and brought to you on the pages which follow.

In the name of the trustees, the faculty, and the entire school, I would like to thank the Seniors, particularly the editor and her staff, for the time and talent so freely given to produce this the nineteenth edition of the "Rebel." Believing in the philosophy that what a student does outside of the classroom is a very important part of his life, I am more than proud and happy to have this opportunity to congratulate the Rebel editor and staff. For this and all other good things you have shared with us I am deeply grateful.

Mrs. Eva Ferguson

Congratulations to a very special Senior Class! You're special to me because I had the pleasure of teaching some of you. You have held high the standards of Forest Hill in the fields of learning, leadership and sports. The 1959 Yearbook spells out for everyone your many achievements.

EDITORIAL

During this Thanksgiving let us all spend a few minutes in praising our blessings. Let us thank God for the privilege of being able to worship Him. Let us thank Him for the only one who has given us life and grace at the cross. Let us remember that we are all sinners and need His mercy.

MR. PRESIDENT SPEAKS

During this month I had the privilege of attending one of the best conventions held in the South I speak of the Southern Association of Student Councils Convention. The student convention was held at Jacksonville, Florida, October 22-25. The student leaders posed with ideas for improving the life of the school. I would like to share some of the ideas which I heard.

At our Pep rallies students yelled time and time again "We then, don't we have just discussed The spirit I have just discussed it is only one kind of spirit Perhaps it is the only one many students know of but there is yet another spirit, even more important The spirit of co-operation"

Councils and the Mississippi Association of Student Councils.

The L.D.C.S.C. was held at Brandon, Miss. on November 6. The fine delegates representing Forest Hill at this convention were Francis Britton, Bill Gore, Sandra James Carmean, and Gail Rushing. The convention consisted of a session and then committee officers for next year.
